ORDER RE ADMINISTRATION OF REPROVALS
PURSUANT TO RULE 615, TRANSITIONAL RULES OF PROCEDURE

=====

Effective October 1, 1993, the Presiding Judge will delegate her authority to the Hearing Department to administer reprovals in those proceedings in which no review by the State Bar Court Review Department is requested. As of October 1, 1993, the service of a decision or an order approving stipulation as to facts and disposition, signed by a hearing judge or judge pro tempore, publicly or privately reproving a member, shall constitute the letter of reproof administered pursuant to rule 615, Transitional Rules of Procedure, and shall become final upon expiration of the period provided by rule 450 or 407(c), respectively, unless a timely request for review of the decision or for withdrawal or modification of the stipulation is filed.
